Proudly Presents

*The Maple Leaves
1967*

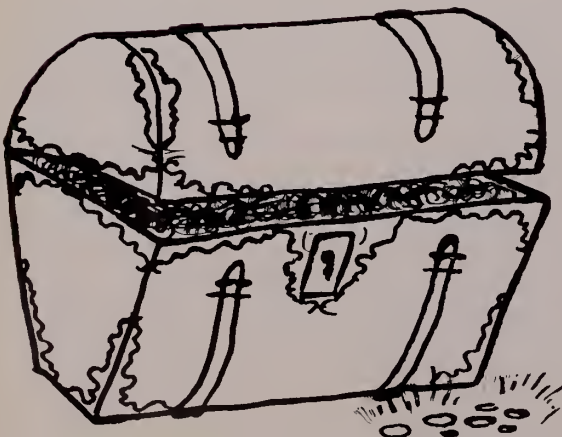

Prologue

I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch wherethrough
Gleams that untraveled world, whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move.
How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnished, not to shine in use!
As though to breathe were life! Life piled on life
Were all too little, and of one to me
Little remains; but every hour is saved
From that eternal silence, something more,
A bringer of new things; and vile it were
For some three suns to store and hoard myself
And this gray spirit yearning in desire
To follow knowledge like a sinking star,
Beyond the utmost bound of human thought.

--Alfred Lord Tennyson

The most precious of human gifts is thought. Every second of every day is filled with thought. As we look around us in our environment we see and hear so many little things that go straight to our minds and our hearts and are stored there, to be remembered later when something reminds us of that particular experience. This phenomena is known as a memory--we create them ourselves, whether they be large or small, happy or sad. We, the Annual Staff of 1967, have tried to collect the many events and activities of Dublin High School into this,

Our Treasure Chest of Golden Memories

Our Treasure Chest

Mrs. Thalia J. Looney

Dedication

Being a teacher carries with it the responsibility of giving of one's time, energy, and knowledge. There are those who constantly give unselfishly of themselves--instilled with the belief that in our world of today the measuring rule of success is education.

The developing character of a young adult is influenced by many things, one of which is the training and guidance he receives from those with whom he comes in contact.

Doing something extra for a student is a gift rather than an obligation. Someone once said, "We teach what we are, rather than what we know." For the things you are, and have taught us to be--sincere, kind, interested, thoughtful, understanding, knowledgeable--we humbly thank you, and dedicate this 1967 MAPLE LEAVES to you,

MRS. THALIA J. LOONEY

We Remember

Mrs. Kent Cecil

"The world is full of beauty--
Sparkling seas,
A garden in full bloom,
The shape of trees,
A child's eyes dancing
With some new delight,
A sky ablaze with stars
A twinkling bright,
A sun-splashed meadow's gold,
The rainbow's end . . .
But more than these--the love
Of friend for friend."

Seniors

*Memories
Forever
Treasured*

The graduating class for the year 1966-67 experienced a year full of special events, problems, fun, and work. The Senior sponsors, headed by Mr. Johnson and Mrs. Bishop, include Mrs. Eller, Miss King, Mrs. McPeake, Mrs. Mason, and Mrs. Sloop.

The class officers have a grave responsibility. The Senior Class chose Betty Wygal as its president; Judy Covey, vice-president; Bobby Quesenberry, secretary; George Morgan, treasurer; and Danny Hayes, parliamentarian.

Each year the Senior Class sponsors the Junior-Senior Prom, the Senior Play, the Christmas Dance, Senior Sneak Day, and the Student-Faculty Basketball Game.

This is the last of their five years at D.H.S. In June the day comes which climaxes some of the most important years of their lives. GRADUATION--the Seniors become adults and, we hope, very successful members of society. May these years at D.H.S., for each senior, prove to be a sound basis for a rich, rewarding future.

Juniors

Treasures*

C L A S S O F J E E R S

The primary concern of the Junior Class is to raise a sufficient amount of money to provide a grand banquet for the Senior Class in the spring of the year. In order to raise this money, the class sells Christmas cards in the fall and produces the Junior Play.

The highlight of the junior year is the arrival of the most beloved class rings--happiness is a blue zircon, a garnet, a turmalene, or any other color one's heart may desire.

Much thanks is due to the class sponsors headed by hard-working Mrs. Jones, and including the loyal Mrs. Rogerson, Mrs. Looney, Mrs. Harvey, Mr. Glover, Mr. Armbrister, Mrs. Martin, and Mr. Kelly.

Bob Burgess, the able president of the Junior Class, is assisted by Frances Moran, vice-president; Sharon Dobbins, secretary; and Darrell Shanks, treasurer.

The juniors of today are the seniors of tomorrow--Would you believe it?

Eighth Grade

Discovering the treasure of

hidden knowledge

CLASS OFFICERS

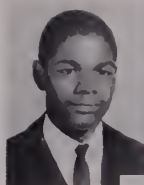

In our already established order, each member of the eighth grade must create his own position in Dublin High School. This position is solidified by his reaction to the new challenges and treasures he unearths during his first year at D.H.S.

The most important eighth grade activity is their party held annually. This year they are initiating the fact that "the fun has just begun for the class of '71".

The eighth graders are led by President--Sarah Allison, Vice-president--Randy Anderson, Secretary--Pam Adkins, and Treasurer--Jackie DeHart.

The sponsors include Mrs. Beamer, Mr. Allison, Miss Boyd, Mrs. Carpenter, Mr. Quesenberry, Mr. Henderson, and Mrs. Layman.

DUKE BAND BRINGS HONOR TO D.H.S.

The 1966-67 year will long be remembered by the 83 member Duke Band, for with the beginning of July came that wonderful trip to New York City. Having been selected by the Lions of Virginia as the state representative to the International Convention, was a great honor for the band. On the application to the Lions the band was able to list as honors won; last year's straight I's in Bristol for the band, majorettes and Drum Major, selection of Drum Major as 3rd place in Class B, the 6 consecutive 1st places in Christmas parades, the 19 members selected for District All-State Band, the 1 member in the All Virginia Band, the three superior and 2 excellent ratings in competition for the year. The decision of the judges was learned in early April and the Duke Band had won out over the two finalists, Arlington and Richmond.

The streets of New York may be paved with gold but the road to New York was paved with donuts, pancakes and concerts. In two short months the band, band parents, Lions Club of Dublin and the community financed the trips and the band left in style on 3 scenic cruisers from Greyhound with "ME TOO" bringing up the rear.

The stay overnight in Philadelphia meant a trip to Fels Planetarium and Observatory, and a visit to Independence Hall. Then on to New York and the long parade, subway rides, boat rides, Broadway shows, and some big city gawking. Soon the food didn't taste as it did at home, the people weren't as nice and the money didn't go as far. Dublin wasn't such a bad place after all.

With the opening of school came the first football game and Jane Smythers led the Duke Band down the field for the beginning of her third year as drum major. Head Majorette, Anita Stone, Majorettes Dottie McClure, Paulette Fowler and Nancy DeVilbiss were featured in the first show. The following Monday the band traveled to Covington to take part in the Labor Day Parade.

October brought the annual trip to the Southeastern Band Festival in Bristol. 68 bands sat inside and watched it rain, and rain, and rain, and rain. Playing inside for the adjudicators, the bands were judged on music alone and the band received a I division from each of the three judges. Paul Yoder, senior judge, took only 1.5 points off the total performance score of the band. Total score was highest ever achieved by the Dublin Band. Sunday morning the band attended a church service with the Pulaski Band at an Abingdon Church.

For the 1st time the Dublin Band took part in the Harvest Bowl Game and was treated to a fine performance of the Crack Marine Drum and Bugle Corps from Washington, D.C. Fire Prevention week brought the yearly parade in Pulaski and its usual missiles.

1st ROW: A. Stone, P. Fowler, J. Smythers, N. DeVilbiss, D. McClure. 2nd ROW: A. Sloop, R. Hines, St. Hester, J. Shelton, A. Whittimore, J. Smith, D. Young, F. Stanley, B. Weaver. 3rd ROW: G. Dalton, D. Trail, C. Greer, M. Sloop, D. Davis, J. Harris, T. Wiley, M. Hager, L. Bowman, B. Johnston, P. Shupe, T. Dobyns. 4th ROW: M. Smith, R. Davis, T. Dillow, R. Olinger, M. Wright, B. Burgess, S. Hale. 5th ROW: R. Fowler, K. Buckland, P. Bowling, D. Walker, N. Walker, P. Turner, B. Wygal, B. Stanley, D. DeVilbiss. 6th ROW: P. Shultz, J. Mason, B. Holmes, K. Brown, C. Maupin, J. Morrell, R. Smith. 7th ROW: R. Tickle, L. Burris, S. Carden, J. Davis, L. Shouse, M. Ratcliffe, K. Repass, D. Conrad, J. King, M. Gunn, S. Anderson, D. Shomaker, K. Humgate, J. Hill. 8th ROW: D. Harper, S. Kelly, P. Phillips, M. Trail, C. Haynes, G. Taylor, A. Ratcliffe, W. Wooten, P. Reed, M. Hall, R. Mady.

The band again traveled to Roanoke for the Shrine Benefit Game. After the game many new maneuvers were demonstrated by the band at the skating rink. Sarah Carden managed to get that 3rd turn in her spin just before she hit the wall, and Mike Smith showed it was possible to sit down from the front, or either side as well as the regular way. How can you fall 3 1/2 times, Mason?

With all the fun comes some sadness and it was sad indeed when not one but two band members were taken suddenly away. Charlene Haynes, 1st chair bass clarinet and Linda Gwynn, 1st trumpet were fine examples of what good band members should be, leaders in their section, hard workers and loyal to the group. They have left places in the band that will be very hard to fill and a memory in each band member's heart of a lost friend.

President Al Sloop and members of the executive council, Betty Wygal, Dottie McClure, Rosemary Olinger, Marcia Hager, and Nancy DeVilbiss will guide the band through the rest of the year with its Christmas parades, All State Band, All Virginia Band, District Festival and spring Concerts.

One of the 18 graduating seniors, Dottie Conrad, Mary Jane Gunn, Maxine Hall, Kathy Hungate, Ronny Mady, John Mason, Jackie Morrell, Michael Ratcliffe, Jesse Shelton, Al Sloop, Jane Smythers, Anita Stone, Ronnie Tickle, Patsy Turner, Billy Weaver, Wayne Wooten, or Betty Wygal, will be chosen by the band as the outstanding senior and will receive the Arion Award. Anyone of them will be deserving of it for they have shown through their hard work that they are proud of their band and their school.

Activities

Treasure of Organization & Fellowship

The Student Cooperative Association was first organized in the Albemarle High School in Albemarle County in 1905. It was at that time called the Junior Community League. The Adult Community League began to take interest in the new organization and supplied the money necessary for its continuation in other schools. In later years both names of the organizations were changed--the Jr. Community League to the S.C.A. and the Adult Community League to the Parents And Teachers Association.

The goals of the S.C.A. are to examine our organization constantly with an open mind and clear vision, for the purpose of improving its effectiveness.

Some of the activities are

1. Sponsor Miss D.H.S. pageant
2. Sponsor and supervise all homecoming activities
3. Conduct all pep rallies
4. S.C.A. picnic

The total membership of the club is 58 members.

The Treasure of a Game Won Fairly

Varsity Football

The 1966 edition of Duke football provided Dublin followers with all the thrills, suspense, and excitement that a Duke fan could endure. The season record reads seven wins and three losses, but two of these losses occurred while Dublin was leading with only forty seconds on the clock. The boys in blue ran, passed, and kicked for a total of 339 points to break Dublin High and New River District scoring records.

Two Dukes, Rick Hurst who scored 126 points and Sammy Porter with six punt returns for TD's, were selected for First Team All-District honor. Jerry Whitt, Jim Hurst, and Gary Jones were chosen for second team while Phil Lemons, Larry Thompson, and Charles Damron gained honorable mention.

We gratefully acknowledge the fact that the Dukes could not have had such a fine record had it not been for the ability of Head Coach Dave Brown and Assistant Coaches Carl Lindstrom and A. C. Glover.

Wolford

The 1965-66 Dublin Varsity basketball season was characterized by the enthusiasm of record crowds, the excitement of the zone press, and the ingenuity of an able coach. With the outstanding record of fourteen wins and seven losses, the Dukes ended the season fourth in the district and gained third place in the New River District Tournament. Team effort and the individual contributions of Pat Burns, who set a single game district scoring record, and Richard Smith, who set a school record in rebounding, helped make it a year to be remembered by the team, the coach, and the fans.

Returning lettermen for the year 1966-

67 are Larry Thompson, Robert Rollins, and Gary Jones. Other members of the team include Sammy Porter, Bobby Burgess, Bill Shrewsberry, Jerry Owen, Oakley Friend, William Wolford, Junior Moye, Darrell Shanks, Mike Linkous, Joe Woodyard, Mike McLeod, and Arless Owens.

Dublin fans anticipate a successful year despite the fact that the 1966-67 team is young and inexperienced, composed mostly of juniors. Our sincere thanks go to the Dukes and to their coach, Sonny Smith, for helping make basketball a sport of renown at Dublin High School.

Coach Lindstrom

The 1965-66 Dublin High Track Team was composed of forty boys from the ninth through the twelfth grades. This was the second year that the track team from Dublin, coached by Mr. Lindstrom, has gone undefeated in regular season competition.

The Dukes came in second at the District Track Meet at V.P.I. The boys that scored for Dublin were as follows: Sammy Porter, Gary Jones, Robert Rollins, Mike Lancaster, Jerry Haga, and Jimmy Hayes.

Dublin was represented at the State Track Meet at V.M.I. by Sammy Porter, Mike Lancaster, Jerry Haga, and Robert Rollins. Robert Rollins came in third in the state for the high jump.

Baseball

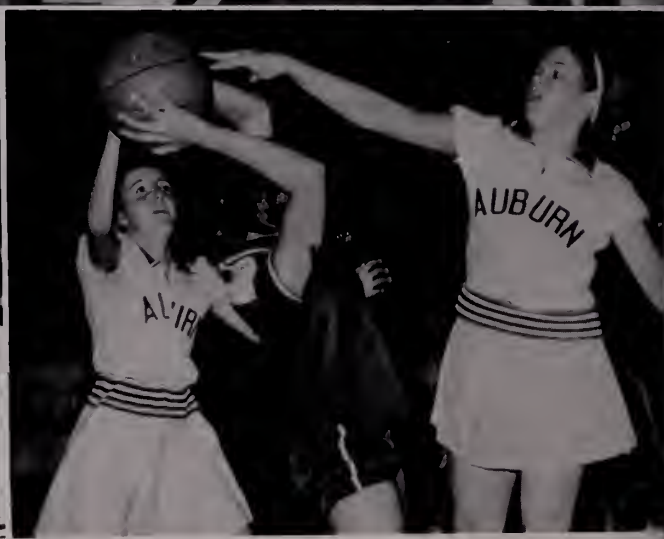

The 1966 baseball season was one of rebuilding with only three returning lettermen and a change of coaches in the early season. As a result of these obstacles the team did not reach its peak until the end of the season. The team ended the year by winning its last three games. Coach Dunavant said, "In my opinion we had a good solid team by the end of the season."

This year Coach Dunavant believes that the picture will be much brighter, with all of the infield and two of the outfield returning. Some of the people returning are as follows: Bob Burgess, last year's leading hitter, George Morgan, Junior Moye, William Wolford, and Stanley Crigger.

We wish to thank Mr. Dunavant for taking on the job at a moment's notice from Coach Young. We think that he did a fine job.

JR. VARSITY

FIRST ROW: Ann Wooten, Barbara McGraw, Marian Bows, Ruth Fowler, Faye Todd, Pam Todd, SECOND ROW: Brenda Parks, Jan Harris, Janet Mills, Diane Dudley, Nancy Koger.
